

Twin City News Notes

Chester and Richard Robinson, students at the Howe Military school, and sons of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Robinson of this city, are arriving home to spend the holidays and accompanied by classmates, Robert Livingston of Montana and Walker Stewart of New York. There will be many social affairs planned in the young men's honor during their stay here.

The students of the reading class of the McKinley school are aiming toward perfection in their recitation of Anita's Secret, a one-act Christmas play, to be presented at the school auditorium, Wednesday evening, Dec. 22nd, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Miss Gail Dickson of Grapevine street has issued invitations for a linen shower complimentary to Miss Lillian Hughes and to be held the evening of Tuesday the 21st. The engagement of Miss Hughes will soon be informally announced.

The Lady Elks true to their Christmas custom will entertain at a grab-bag affair tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. M. F. McCarthy in South Tod avenue.

The Baptist Sunday school class has arranged to give a Christmas cantata on Christmas eve with Mrs. John Boyan directing the affair. It is a usual consideration on the part of the class each year to entertain prior to the Christmas holiday.

The Indiana Harbor Pythian Sisters and their husbands will be the guests this evening of Mrs. Joseph Todd at 3425 Block avenue with Christmas festivities featured.

An interesting meeting will be held with the literary department of the East Chicago Woman's club tomorrow afternoon when Christmas stories will be told appropriate to the fast approaching holidays. The department has been fortunate in securing Miss Putt, librarian at South Bend, as the speaker of the occasion. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. D. Kennedy in 14th street. It is desired that there be a large attendance of members present.

On Saturday evening, December 18, the home of Dave Roberts, 446 Hickory street, was the scene of a delightful "dinner party" given in his honor by his brother Lewis. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with holly and Christmas festoons. Covers were laid for 16 guests. After the excellent feast, which was served by the hostess Mrs. Dave Roberts, the evening was spent most enjoyably in music, consisting of instrumental and vocal selections of the highest order. Solos and duets were rendered by Mrs. Joseph Fisher and Dave Roberts, also Mr. Lewis Roberts gave a few numbers. Mrs. Fisher was in extremely good voice and was highly appreciated. Mrs. Dave Roberts presided at the piano. Among those present were a number of the officials of the International Lead Refining Co., namely: Messrs. G. E. Johnson, F. E. Stolte, F. P. Clark, H. B. Brown, E. A. Jordan, W. O. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Finch, D. H. Evans and John Rardon. The guests departed at a late hour, expressing their appreciation to the hosts and hostess for the pleasant manner in which they were entertained.
